1. School Holidays.

On going discussion about upcoming school holiday activity suggestions. Suggestions included, potential Youth Council events and activities, Youth Prom, sleep over and movie night.

2. Youth Week.

Discussions around Youth Council, Youth Week involvement. The Youth Council will be holding a 'Youth Council Fair' on Sunday 13 April, with set up being Saturday 12 April. The Youth Council will invite local groups from throughout the Snowy Valleys to hold a stall or booth where Youth visitors can do an activity, try a sport or game, the aim being each stall holder will have something for Youth to do rather than just something to purchase, with the exception of food and beverages.

A list of potential stall holders was discussed who will be contacted directly as well as releasing an EOI so that all community groups have the opportunity to get involved should they wish to.

The event will be coordinated by the Youth Council committee members with the Youth Council, Council representatives support, with each member taking on a role to ensure the event comes together.

Discussions will continue online throughout the Youth Council WhatsApp group chat as well as over email, at this stage the below jobs have been delegated to the Youth members:

- Reaching out to potential stall holders - Aiyana
- Poster design and creation - Amy
- Coordinating music and musicians – Anna

3. Bimonthly Social Gatherings.

A social meeting has been scheduled for Thursday 27 March, where Youth Council members can bring along additional friends and family to help with the planning and execution of the Youth Council Fair. Pizza will be provided.

4. Items to discuss at next meeting.

- Electing a new chairperson.
- Finalising Youth Week event.
- Resignation of Youth Council member Harry Foster.

10. NEXT MEETING

The next meeting will be held on 10 April 2025 in the Tumut Room of the Riverina Highlands Building.

Meeting closed 7:06pm
