GIS Mapping-

Request made at last meeting by members for map to be sent out. This has not occurred. Members request copy of map to be sent. Discussion about why the map was developed. It was to identify lands for 'Welcome to' signage in English and traditional language.

Motion to hold over discussion on map and provide a clear motion to vote on. Moved Cr Sam Hughes /Jenna Small.

Road Concerns

Road Safety Officer reported that after Radar study in The Parade Tumbarumba found the average speed was 41 kms/hr. Problem times were very early mornings. The compliance increased between 40-50 kms/hr to 90%. The study could not differentiate between Cars and Trucks. Councillor Hughes requested that the same study be conducted in Batlow near IGA.

8.1 Reflect Reconciliation Action Plan 2023-2024

The remaining incomplete actions contained in the Reflect RAP will move over to the Innovate RAP for delivery.

8.2 Update-Innovate Reconciliation Action Plan 2024-2025-2026

No feedback received from committee members by 30 June. Members request one month for further feedback. Date for feedback is 23 September.

Draft RAP has been sent to Reconciliation Australia for comment by Place Activation Team.

8.3 NAIDOC Week debrief

Both events went well. Craig Wilesmith happy that there were new flags at both Council Offices. He questioned whether there was a schedule for flag updates. Committee request letters of thanks be sent to Kids Express and 54 Reasons for providing Children's activities on both days.

8.4 GIS

Copy of map to be requested to be sent to members from previous meeting.

Further discussion on hold until next meeting.
